BAND PLAYS ITSELF OFF

LARGE CROWD WITNESSED THE DEPARTURE OF THE S. S. KOREA FROM THE RAILWAY WHARF.

An enormous crowd witnessed the departure of the S. S. Korea for San Francisco at noon today. The vessel sailed from the Railway wharf, as she had been at that place loading sugar. The wharf was thronged with people, the departure of the Hawaiian Band being the cause for such a large crowd of people being present. Forty-two members of the band departed. In addition to Manager Cohen, Miss Lei Lehua Brown, and Sonny Cunha. A number of the members of the band were accompanied by their wives. The band boys were covered with leis which they threw to friends and relatives standing on the wharf, as the steamer pulled away.

A very small crowd of passengers other than the band departed. Mrs. Alapai did not accompany that organization. The band played on the forward deck of the steamer. W. S. Ellis, one of the members of the band, was accompanied by his bride, formerly Mrs. Emma Nakapuuhi. Mrs. Cunha, nee Juanita Beckley, accompanied her husband. Mrs. Cohen departed also with Hawaii's impressario. The Korea carried a special shipment of 3000 tons of sugar which had been loaded into her from the railway wharf warehouse chutes. This is the first shipment of the kind ever made on a through Oriental liner and there was considerable interest attached to the occurrence.

Theodore Richards and family were departing passengers.

THE DIVORCE EVIL.

Edward S. Martin, whose optimistic observations on current happenings have won him a host of admirers, discusses the divorce question in his department in the May issue of Appleton's Booklovers Magazine. After handling the subject very thoroughly from all points of view, Mr. Martin reaches this conclusion:

"We shall never all be satisfied with any conclusion about divorce. Divorce is failure, and failure is never pleasing. Our ideal of marriage is right as it stands, and marriage that conforms with it is so immeasurably better than any sort of divorce that it would seem safe to trust it to maintain itself irrespective of restriction or compulsory legislation. Society will not become corrupt because divorce is too easy, though divorce may become too common because of the corruption of public morals. Divorce is a symptom, far more than a cause, of corruption."
